SDR Ventures Advises Milano Digital Papers on Acquisition by HTM-MBS, LLC

SDR Ventures is pleased to announce that M C Max, Inc. dba Milano Digital Papers & Films (“Milano Digital”) has been acquired by HTM-MBS, LLC (“the Buyer”). SDR served as the exclusive sell-side advisor to Milano throughout the transaction process.

Based out of Denver, Colorado, Milano Digital has positioned itself as an industry leader since 1982. Milano Digital manufactures and distributes its imaging product line for color graphics including: Wide-Format Media & Supplies, Fine Art Products, CAD Plotter Paper, Films & Inks, Laminates & Mounting Adhesives and Display Hardware. Milano’s dedicated team prides itself on its ability to meet its clients’ ever-changing needs to help them achieve their imaging needs.

Mark McDade, President of Milano Digital commented “The SDR Team’s continued commitment to helping us achieve our transaction goals was greatly appreciated. Despite economic setbacks, their efforts ensured that we found a buyer that valued the years of dedication our employees poured into growing our company. I am grateful for their dedication to our transactional success and look forward to watching the company succeed for years to come.”

“It was a pleasure working with Mark and his team at Milano Digital. Mark has done an incredible job at constructing a company and team that is committed to its customers’ success. It was incredibly rewarding to help the Milano team find a buyer that would guide the company towards a new era of continued success,” added Mike Grande, Managing Director at SDR Ventures. “Milano Digital and the Buyer have a bright future together and I am eager to follow their joint success for years to come.”
